Love Work live Life!

releasing God's purpose in your life

Hi, David Oliver here...

I want to ask you the question: 'do you know the plans God has for you?' Perhaps you feel that you're just waiting for God to tell you his plan. But have you thought that the place you work in now might be just the place where God wants you to be working for him?

If you want to know your destiny, your purpose, your part in God's plan, then please come to Love Work, Live Life! It's an evening that could change your life. Forever.

See you there!

David Oliver

Wherever you go, God goes with you - however far you have to go to get to work

At Love Work, Live Life! you will hear David Oliver debunk the myth that God is only interested in full-time Christian service. You'll discover that the majority of people you read about in the Bible worked in 'ordinary jobs', day-in, day-out.

Some of them were in local government, others were craftsmen. They were fishermen and farmers, doctors and carpenters, but they all had one thing in common. God used them,

David

You'll come away from this packed evening with...

- Inspiration and motivation to love your work
- Practical tools to unpack your vocation and gifting
- The ability to please God in what you do
- A 16 page workbook packed with key tips and personal applications
- A new passion for your current situation - however tough!

What they're saying...

"I thought it was brilliant - seeing my work in a new way has made a huge difference."

"David's message has an authenticity backed up by considerable work-place experience."

"I can honestly say that this evening was life changing!"
