Conference Notes - Please read carefully

- Zoom familiarisation session Friday 5 March at 4.00pm. (Link to be e-mailed out.) For those who are new to Zoom or just want to say “Hello” in advance of the meeting there will be a chance to meet on Zoom and ask any questions.
- The Zoom link for the conference This will be posted out to you by e-mail and also on the main conference webpage. However if accessing the link via the web page, it will be necessary to log in to the site with one’s password after Thursday at 5.00pm
- Conference log in Please login by 9.25am. This will allow the conference to commence promptly
- Questions for panel All questions must be submitted in advance. Click here. The questions will be collated and presented to the panel of speakers. While every attempt will be made to answer the questions the limit of time may result in some not being able to be addressed. If this is the case then consideration will be given as to how to deal with outstanding questions in the days following the conference. Click here for webpage carrying all questions submitted.
- Audio status With the obvious exception of the speakers, all microphones will be muted for the duration of the conference.
- Video status It is not essential that those attending have their video switched on (and you can turn it on and off at will). However it is encouraging for faces to be seen; not least as a shared experience during this time of relative isolation.
- Conference Recording The speakers’ faces will be recorded, but no other faces will appear in the final recording. A decision will be made in consultation with the speakers as to whether or not, and if so how any recording will be made available after the conference.
- Numbers and Geography At the time of writing there are over 270 people registered to attend. Registrations span from New Zealand through Asia, Africa and Europe to Canada and right across the USA. In the northern hemisphere, the furthest north is Bergen and the furthest south is Kampala.
- Post-conference. An early post-conference e-mail will be sent out giving further information. The Christians Together website will host output material from the conference which will continue to be available exclusively to registered members. If you have first registered for the purposes of the conference, you will be asked after the event whether or not you wish to remain as registered member.
- Post-conference feedback Provision will be made to allow you to feedback your thoughts after the conference. Details to follow soon. Effort will be made to respond to any questions which weren’t addressed during the conference due to lack of time.

It is the sincere hope and prayer of the organisers that you will find this conference helpful in getting to grips with the events of the last year.
