In these difficult times, rarely do we take time out of our busy routines to spend time in the presence of our Lord and Saviour.

Encounter God through the book of Esther, will take you on a spiritual journey that will encourage, equip and empower you to be the 'daughter' that God has called you to be. Through worship, prayer and the word, you will see the beauty that is within you, the beauty that others see and know that this is the time for you to flourish under His anointing.

It hopes to:

- Be a retreat to build on the foundations of the Christian faith
- Be an opportunity to fellowship with other women in the Body of Christ
- Bring restoration to broken relationships by the power of the Holy Spirit
- Bring healing to help you be the woman that God wants you to be

Tina Russell-Mott is married to Patrick. She lives in the UK and works for Avanti Ministries as prayer and Spiritual Development Co-ordinator. Tina has a great passion to reach the broken hearted by the power of the Gospel and to see believers mature in their faith. Tina is a gifted teacher, helping people reach their God given potential to serve God more effectively. Seeking God's will for her life Tina frequently found the path hard to see and full of hidden pitfalls. Years of healing and restoration have brought Tina to a full and meaningful experience of the unconditional love of Father God.

daughters

There will be an inspired programme for young women aged 14-18.

Guest speakers will teach the value of walking the Christian life in today's society, equipping the young women to explore their personal relationship with Jesus.

The Book of Esther has key lessons that encourage and empower young women to be daughters of the King, who can walk with integrity and vision. This is a time to have a personal encounter with God, in a relaxed setting that brings healing and restoration and establishes biblical principles of acceptance and worth. Our hope is that girls will leave this conference feeling strong and fired up in their faith being freed from the worries and insecurities that can be put on a girl growing up in this world today!

Faye Porter Founder of GLO Ministry (Girls Living Out the Great Commission)

Having found her early teens a tough time it is now Faye's passion to work and spend time with girls, helping them get through whatever they face and to help them see themselves as the brilliant people they actually are, despite what other people may have told, are telling and will tell them.
