

“Again I will build you, and you shall be rebuilt, O virgin of Israel! You shall again be adorned with your tambourines, And shall go forth in the dances of those who rejoice. You shall yet plant vines on the mountains of Samaria; The planters shall plant and eat them as ordinary food. For there shall be a day When the watchmen will cry on Mount Ephraim, ‘Arise, and let us go up to Zion, To the Lord our God.’”
(Jeremiah 31:3-6).

‘Everlasting Covenant’

“Also I give to you and your descendants after you the land in which you are a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.” (Genesis 17:8)

“I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed” (Genesis. 12:3).

Ofer Amitai

Special Guest Speaker

Ofer was born in Tel-Aviv, Israel in 1951, the son of a mother whose family was already several generations in the land, and whose father arrived in Israel as a child from Poland in 1935. He grew up in a secular Zionist family in a village near Tel Aviv. In 1967, Ofer's father, Eliezer Amitai, was commander of the Jerusalem brigade which was responsible, along with other forces, for liberating the Old City and unifying Jerusalem.

After fighting in the Yom Kippur War in 1973, Ofer's search for the Truth and God led him to the United States and then eventually to India. There God revealed Himself to him as Yeshua, the Messiah of Israel. He then returned to Israel and after a short while, went to the U.S. where he met his wife, Chris, and trained for the Lord's work.

Together, they spent fourteen years in training and ministry at the Zion Faith Homes near Chicago, Illinois. In 1994 they returned to Israel to reside and have pastored Kehilat El-Roi in Jerusalem since January 1997. In addition to pastoral responsibilities, Ofer and Chris run the Israel Prayer and Training Center in Jerusalem. Ofer travels internationally, speaking at conferences and congregations to foster prayer for Israel, and teaching on the subject of God's heart in restoring His chosen people, as well as other subjects. Chris works together with him in the leadership of the congregation, as well as leading prayer meetings, teaching, and developing children's curriculum. Ofer and Chris have two children.
